MEMPHIS APPEAL.

THE CONSUMMATION OF ONE VILLAINY.

The London Chronicle once said, "ministers derive this advantage from the very extent of their dishonesty, that people become at length tired of dwelling on what is notorious and undeniable."

It was profoundly true. We wonder at the shameless impudence with which a stump-tailed Congress of Radicals violates the plainest provisions of the Constitution and daily commits the rankest perjury. The super-eminent and unapproachable disregard for truth, honor and decency of a Butler whom his State delights to honor in proportion to his unworthiness, is looked upon by us with the same kind of dull wonder with which we inspect some monster that a freak of nature has produced, to the end that there may be in the animal world something to typify such moral monsters as Butler and Stevens—two leprous souls, if indeed they are souls, and not merely exhalations and puffs of mephitic vapor from the infernal pit.

We, bred to profoundly reverence the law, and, like Montaigne, holding an impudently vicious argument and shamelessly false proposition to be a greater insult and provocation than a blow, are amazed to see a Boutwell and a Bingham, claiming to belong to the profession of which Erskine and Curran once were ornaments, in the days when it was not prostituted to the basest uses, reproducing before the American Senate the frothy ravings against the most sacred principles of the law which all civilized men acknowledge as the cohesive attraction that binds society together.

We, remembering that the Romans were capable of generosity towards those who had rebelled against their lawful power, and that they honored those who had rebelled, in proportion to their heroism and endurance, and by these measured their own glory, and did not basely hate those whose resistance and bravery had made the armies of Rome illustrious,—we are amazed to see a people of so singularly sordid, base and grovelling a nature, that they find it a luxury to persecute and outrage and degrade those brave men whom they overwhelmed with numbers, confessing by employing them, that negroes were as brave and honorable soldiers as themselves, and hiring hordes of German and other foreign mercenaries, with bounties and the promise of license to rob, to help them conquer those of their own race and blood, whom they are, even now, not generous and manly enough to respect; but demand the trial of the President of the Southern Confederacy, whom they chained and afterward held imprisoned for two years; whose conviction they would hail with jubilant acclamations; and whose execution half a million of them would attend, if they could, to insult the martyr of the Southern struggle for independence, and bandy their scurvy jokes and ribald utterances while he was being choked to death, to the great glory of New England and the States that have been issued from its loins.

There are a thousand acts of Radicalism at which we stare in stupid amazement. It possesses the enviable faculty of being as unspeakably base and mean and ignoble in little things as in matters of great concern. Its malignity and villainy can be concentrated to the deadly virulence of prussic acid. Albany Fonblanque once said, in the London Examiner, "If it be too much to require a minister to be just, we think we may ask of him as much as Mrs. Peachum asks of her daughter Polly—namely, to be 'somewhat nice' in the deviations from virtue. It is a very impolitic thing for a minister to make his injustice too common—he should reserve it for the service of the church, the Magistracy, and exalted abuses. Fielding records of his Jonathan Wild the Great, that he had an excellent maxim, 'never to do more mischief than was necessary,' for that mischief was too precious a thing to be wasted." Injustice ministers should husband as too precious a thing to be thrown away in the defence of paltry objects. They should reserve it, like the Gods of Epic poetry, for knots worthy of it. It is a saying of Aristotle, if we remember correctly, "that the nature of every thing is best seen in small quantities, and in petty injustice the public see what is most odious in the nature of injustice."

The Radical faction of the United States is not at all 'nice' in its deviations from virtue; nor does it economise its injustice or its mischief, but lavishly expends both, its supply being apparently inexhaustible. The greatest iniquities appear only the natural proceeding of such a Government.

There was a time, in this now debauched and degraded country, when the rumor of such a villainy practised on the people of even the smallest territory would have rung through the land like the clangor of a trumpet, and the people's blood would have risen to a fever heat, and their indignation have shrivelled up as the fire shrivelled up leaves, the paltry and despicable scoundrels who should have dared to sit on their dishonored seats at Washington, and write such sentences of slavery against three hundred thousand white men, disfranchising them in ten States and making the issue from the obscene loins of Ethiopia their masters.

But now that villainies are perpetrated and excite no man's wonder, alarm there can be none, to those who have endured the worst and would not step aside to avoid death. Outrages which, six years ago, would have stung and cut to the bone, which no man believed possible, which no man, not even Stevens or Butler, thought any other man or even himself, base and mean and vile and low enough to commit, are now, even done by military upstarts, only the occasion of half an hour's gossip among the babblers of the pot-houses.

Never, in all the ages of the world, not evan when England bribed and bought the Irish Parliament to vote for a Union which finds its like only in that which is now being consummated in the United States,—a Union execrated and hated by every true hearted Irishman, from the day when it became a fact accomplished, until to-day,—never has there been a more infernal outrage perpetrated than the making of the Constitution of Arkansas, the obtaining a majority of votes for it by the most barefaced and impudent villainies, and the recognition of it by Congress as the expression and enactment of the will of the people of Arkansas.

One abandons in despair the attempt to express the disgust, the scorn, the contempt, the judgment of condemnation, which a measure so incomparably infamous and villainous deserves. It is to impose on the people of Arkansas as a Constitution of Government an instrument which they had condemned and rejected by their votes, and which in their souls they loathe and hate. It is to deprive them of the right of self-government, and prescribe for them a fundamental law which they hate, detest and despise. It is to empower a small minority of the white men of the State, aided by the negroes, to disfranchise the majority, to incapacitate them to sit as jurors, to disqualify them to exercise professions and the common trades, and make them Pariahs and Helots in their own land; which the black and white proletaires and vagrant paupers, issuing from their kennels and burrows to vote, levy such taxes on lands, of which they own none, as to be in effect confiscations. These things are already proposed in the scurvy collection of negroes and white men that calls itself the Legislature of Arkansas; and Congress knows it all and yet delivers over the decent men and women of the State to be oppressed and persecuted by the scum and refuse of the Commonwealth.

These things, notorious to all the world, done without shame, or even the decent gloss with which hypocrisy veils the indecencies of crime, sicken the heart and sadden the soul of every man who once idly dreamed that this was a free country, in which the rank abuses of despotism could never strangle the laws and assassinate liberty. Wanting words to stamp and brand these villainies as they deserve, what can we do but invoke upon their perpetrators the vengeance of the Almighty God, wait patiently, endure silently and hope for the day of retribution?

That day is not very distant. No ignoble despotism can last long. When the first general election under the Reform gave the Grey ministry an overwhelming majority, as the returns came in, the new danger, the great peril in England, of a too great success, broke for a moment upon Lord Brougham's mind, and he exclaimed, "We shall be too strong." The sequel abundantly proved that these were prophetic words. The ministry had to grapple with a more insidious and fatal enemy than the Opposition,—almost absolute political power; and they fell in public opinion almost as rapidly as they had risen. The first act of the reformed Parliament was to repeal the Habeas Corpus act in Ireland, substitute courts-martial for jury-trials, and prohibit popular meetings in the country: and the English people condemned these measures as tyrannical, although they were to oppress the Irish only.

The measures for which the Radical party is responsible infinitely excel in atrocity and tyranny, those of the Grey Ministry; and no such men as the Radical leaders disgraced that Parliament. But the party was too strong. So is Radicalism. It has absolute political power; and that will soon prove its ruin. The avenger of blood swiftly and unrelentingly pursues it, and there is no City of Refuge for it, nor any escape from its fate. It lives detested, and it will die accursed, for it will not leave behind it the memory of a single good deed.

Hon. Albert Pike:

Sir: I much admire your article in answer to the young men of Mississippi, who ask your advice as to a proper country for them to remove to, seeking relief from the oppression of negro and Radical rule. God has, at least, blessed them with a soil and climate unsurpassed for capacity to yield rich returns for all proper efforts put forth for that object. It is gravely concluded by many of our wiser heads, that if Southern men had ignored the grandeur of large plantations and had held less land, diversified crops more, improved tillage systematically and carefully, patronized and promoted the mechanic arts more in their villages, and lived more at home, then they could have had the North at their feet instead of dominating over them, through the power of barbarian negro votes.

You are right, General, in saying we ought to stay at home and stand by each other, with patience and self-denial, hoping, through energy and perseverance, to bring about a better state of things.

W. B. M.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The special to the Louisville Journal, dating his dispatches on the 22d, furnishes the following interesting topics of conversation at the national capital:

There is trouble in the Radical camp. Jay Cooke has come down on the Grant and Colfax people, and refuses to subscribe. This I know to be true, and announces definitely. Grant's man, Washburne, is in New York, trying to raise money. Jay Cooke's apostacy is attributed to the fact that he believes Grant unsound on the bond issue. It is also laid to the account of Mr. Chase. Whatever its origin it is a fact, and the Radical leaders are both incensed and aghast.

"Data," of the Baltimore Sun, (who is a private Secretary of the President,) announces that the President is ready to accept McCulloch's resignation and to appoint Groesbeck as his successor.

The Collectorship still hangs between heaven and earte. It will probably be settled to-morrow. Wisewell or Fuller is likely to be the lucky party.

The Reconstruction Committee, which has been organized into a campaign club for Grant and Colfax, are to report a bill to exclude 25,000 white freemen of Virginia, already registered, from the exercise of the ballot. Otherwise the Old Dominion is lost to the Radicals. The thing is to be done at the request of the local faction, which has despaired of success by legitimate means.

Gen. Meade is now in Washington. He is very silent about the late outrages. It seems to be conceded that the chances are against his return to Georgia. The Conservatives suggest Alaska.

Young was turned out to-day and McKee sworn in. The latter looks very much as if he felt ashamed of the whole performance. He ought to be ashamed of himself. Beck and Trimble made able speeches for Young.

A meeting of young Irishmen, among whom John Savage is prominent, has been called to meet in New York on the 4th of July. One of its purposes is Fenian, but it will prove a strongly cooperative body with the Democrats.

The rumor that Evarts had declined the Attorney Generalship is untrue. The Senate is now considering his nomination. The chances are that it will be confirmed.

John Surratt is at last released on bail. The likelihood is that nothing will ever be done with him. Thus ends an iniquitous prosecution of an innocent and estimable family.

Judge Chase denies the paternity of the platform recently attributed to him, in which the withdrawal of troops from the South and the submission of negro suffrage to States are leading features.

FORMERLY OF JAMES' LOCK HOSPITAL, Custom House street, New Orleans, (established 1850), for the last seven years located in Chicago, and celebrated throughout the country in the successful treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES, can be confidentially consulted at his office and parlors, 91 and 93 Randolph street, corner of Dearborn street, or by letter Postoffice Drawer 5863.

Dr. JAMES treats CHRONIC MERCURIAL SYPHILITIC, BLOOD and SKIN DISEASES, and all DISORDERS of a CONTAGIOUS VENEREAL CHARACTER—which he cures without the use of mercury, iodide potash, arsenic or any poison, but with his NEUTRALIZER, a positive cure for all hurrs and blood poisons. ORGANIC WEAKNESS, such as SEMINAL WEAKNESS, NOCTURNAL and DIURNAL EMISSIONS, brought on by abuse of the organs, early indiscretions, excesses, or entailed hereditarily, causing loss of memory, confusion, depression, dimness of vision and oftentimes insanity, with a deplorable train or other symptoms, treated and radically cured by an infallible method, saving time and expense. All diseases peculiar to the sexual organs, of a private character, radically and permanently cured.

Old diseases of the most horrible class, where the blood has become poisoned, producing blotches on the face, small watery blisters, pains in the head and bones, ulcerated throat and nose, sores on the limbs and body, scrofula, together with an endless number of sufferings—effectually and permanently cured.

DR. JAMES is recommended by the press of the country, by professors of medical colleges, and by the medical profession generally. Those afflicted should apply to him, and be cured at once.

THE MONITOR, by Dr. James, a treatise upon diseases peculiar to the sexual organs of either sex, cause effects and their remedies, compiled from an experience of twenty years' practice in the exclusive treatment of these diseases, sent to any address, securely wrapped. Price one dollar. Pamphlet on SPERMATORRHŒA, or one on SYPHILIS, sent in sealed envelope upon receipt of postage—two red stamps. Address Dr. JAMES, Postoffice drawer 5863, Chicago, Illinois. apl7 tf

Nearly every game for amusement and exercise, unrestricted by law, together with double and single barrel shot guns and rifles, provided without charge. For analysis, certificates, etc., see circulars, and refer to W. R. Hunt, M. S. Parham, Sam. Tate and P. B. Wills, Memphis, Tenn. Terms—Per day, $2; week, $12; month, $40. Being a new place, accommodations somewhat restricted, and no promises. je6

MONTVALE SPRINGS---1868

THIS FAVORITE SUMMER RESORT, SITuated in Blount county, East Tennessee, will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 1st of June.

The marked beneficial results attending the use of these waters, in functional derangements of the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, and the cure of Chronic Diseases, attest their Medicinal Properties.

All the accessories for enjoyment and recreation at the best watering places will be found here.

The facilities for reaching Montvale this season will be increased by the extension of the Knoxville and Charleston Railroad, now in rapid course of construction, and regular trains are expected to be running, by the time of opening, to Maryville, whence passengers are conveyed in coaches to the Springs, nine miles distant.

Board reduced, per day, to $2; per week, $12; per month, $40. Address for pamphlet containing analysis and description of waters, etc.,

THE undersigned, lessees of this old and well-known WATERING PLACE, announce that (encouraged by the liberal patronage received last season) they have largely added to their accommodations in comfort and appearance, and are prepared to entertain FIFTEEN HUNDRED GUESTS.

The Bathing accommodations are in fine order. Hot and warm sulphur baths, so eminently efficacious in many cases, are at the command of visitors at all hours.

In addition to other amusements, they have provided a new and elegant BOWLING ALLEY and BILLIARD ROOM, conveniently located. Prof. Rosenberger's celebrated FULL BRASS BAND has been engaged for the season. A GOOD LIVERY STABLE will be kept on the premises.

The completion of the Virginia Central Railroad to Covington leaves only twenty miles of staging through a beautiful mountain country, over a well graded turnpike.

TERMS—Three dollars per day, and eighty dollars per month. Children under ten years of age and colored servants, half price. White servants according to accommodations.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them equal in respect of such rights; and these rights have not been impared by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavors, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

10th. Andrew Johnson the first choice of the Democracy of Tennessee; but their Delegates left free to unite in selecting another as the candidate for the Presidency.

"THE POPULARITY OF PENDLETON."

We had almost determined to cease from interposing a word more on the merits or advantages of the distinguished gentlemen who have been named in connection with the Presidential nomination in opposition to the nominee of the Radical Convention at Chicago, but the following eloquent tribute to one of those gentlemen, who stands most prominently before the country in that connection, seems so free from all reflection upon others, while it presents him in such acceptable form, it is but just that his friends should have the advantage of its reproduction. The Alton (Ill.) Democrat, of the 19th inst., thus presents its favorite, around whom that section of the country is ready to rally, and whose success its people are eager to ratify. Although much may be allowed to the language of eulogy, the prominence and character of the gentleman named, furnish excellent grounds for the panegyric:

THE POPULARITY OF PENDLETON.

By reference to the proceedings of the Twelfth District Congressional Convention, printed in another column, it will be seen that the Democracy of the six counties therein represented, reaffirmed the resolutions adopted by the State Convention at Springfield; again declared their approbation of the financial policy of Hon. George H. Pendleton, and again urged his nomination as Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

It is perhaps difficult to understand the reason why, but one thing is self-evident, that no man, since the coffin lid closed over the form of Stephen A. Douglas, has ever held so high and so warm a place in the hearts of the people of the Northwest as George H. Pendleton. His popularity has, as it were, sprung up in a single night and burst into full bloom. Among all the true and tried statesmen of the party, men who have grown gray in the service, this comparatively young man has suddenly risen and towers aloft like some vast oak lifting its coronal of leaves above the lesser trees of the surrounding forest. Whenever and wherever mentioned, in schoolhouse caucus or in great conventions, his name never fails to waken cheers and shouts of applause; coming, too, not from wire-working politicians manufacturing a temporary and unsubstantial enthusiasm, but from the hard-fisted yeomanry of the land, the bread winners, the tax payers, the voters. We have said that Pendleton's amazing popularity was difficult to understand—and yet the secret of it lies on the surface, and is full of the deepest political significance. He is popular because at all times and in all places he has been a firm, consistent, unwavering, unpurchaseable Democrat, without spot or blemish; he is popular because in the days that tried men's souls and when principles and personal honor were thrown upon the market to the highest bidder, he never sacrificed either, but maintained both without favor in and out of Congress; he is popular because he has had the genius to devise a plan by which the Government may preserve its financial faith and at the same time lessen the tremendous load of debt and taxation which is now crushing the energies of the country and paralyzing the industrial resources of the people; he is popular because the people know who, and what he is, and where to find him to-day, next week, next month and next year; he is popular because he combines the manly frankness of Western character with the high-bred courtesy of an old-fashioned gentleman, and because, if nominated and elected, the Presidential chair will not be occupied by a clown, a demagogue or a senseless horse jockey.

This fervent admiration, this thorough confidence, this unbounded love which clothes Pendleton as with a garment of glory, is the best possible evidence of his power at the polls, and if the National Convention is gifted with a proper share of wisdom and common sense—as God grant it may be—it will recognize and accept that power, and secure the brightest omen of a crowning victory by presenting the noble son of Ohio as the standard bearer of the Democratic party for the campaign of 1868.

It is possible Mr. Pendleton may not be nominated, in which event the high praise to which he is justly entitled can do no harm, and if he be, it certainly cannot diminish the probabilities of success. But few days now intervene before the National Democratic Convention will assemble, and select the standard bearers for the campaign. We can only express our earnest wish that its counsels may be governed by patriotic zeal alone, and that its conclusions, whatever they may be, culminate in the overthrow and blotting out of Radicalism.

TENNESSEE.

—The McMinnville Enterprise of the 20th says: The steam saw and grist mill of Messrs. Hoodenpyl and Gardner, on Collins river, six miles from town, was burned by accident on Saturday night of last week.

—The Jackson Whig says: Messrs. W. G. Smith and John S. York have erected a large steam tannery at Pinson, in this county. We have not as yet ascertained its capacity for tanning. Over one hundred vats have already been prepared for steeping purposes.

—The Columbia Herald of the 20th says: We learn from some of our country friends that a good deal of uneasiness is felt through portions of the country in regard to rabid dogs. Several have been killed lately, and it is not known but that they may have bitten others, and thus the contagion spread over the county.

—The Lincoln County News says: Our wheat crop has been harvested, and from all quarters we have the cheering news that the crop is good. Other crops, however, are beginning to suffer for rain. The oat crop is already thought to be materially injured, and unless we have rain soon corn will begin to suffer. We had a most delightful shower here last Wednesday night, but learn that it extended in no direction more than two or three miles.

—In the case of the State vs. B. H. Payne, after a most elaborate trial at Nashville, the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

—The Lincoln News contains a narrative of the career of a black fiend, who committed an outrage on a widow lady, which was fully corroborated upon investigation, and on Sunday night, the 14th inst., he was seized by a party who thought the law too tardy, and hanged him to a tree within sight of the home that he had filled with torment.

—The Carroll county Stockholders in the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, met at Huntingdon, a few days since, and passed a series of resolutions, of which this is the first:

Resolved, That in our opinion the management of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, since the same has been in the hands of W. P. Innes, as Receiver, furnishes evidence of a disregard of the rights and interests of both the State and the Stockholders in said Company.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—The Concordia (La.) Intelligencer of the 19th says: On the 10th and 11th inst., some four or five horse thieves were captured, we learn, in the neighborhood of Floyd. They belonged to a gang whose operations on the Arkansas line, have, for some time, been a source of great annoyance to the citizens, and their capture will be a cause of gratification.

—Senator Doolittle proposed an amendment to the last Reconstruction bill, giving to every negro soldier, without distinction of section, the right to vote. The Radical Senate voted the amendment down. Such is the vaunted sectional equality that the Radicals sustain!

—The editor of the Fayette Watchman has in his possession the "family record" of Alexander Henry, who perished in the recent tornado, together with a deed of gift made by him to his children. These were picked up—the former at least—fifty miles from the site of Henry's house.

—Michael Rhisehardt, an estimable citizen of Shelby county, Ala., was caught in the machinery of a thresher, on the 11th, and crushed so badly as to cause his death.

—Mr. Samuel Brasher, one of the oldest citizens of Shelby county, Ala., died in Columbians, on the 12th inst., aged sixty-six years. He had been a citizen of of the county fifty years.

—The Jail of Shelby county, Ala., at at Columbians, was burned on the 17th. There were but two prisoners confined in it, James Dennis, for an attempt to murder Dr. Fowler, of Montevallo, and Albert Nail, colored, for horse stealing. He is very black, about six feet high, weighs near two hundred pounds and has three little scars on his neck, caused by a burn.

—The Atlanta Intelligencer of the 17th announces the death of Col. E. P. Watkins, at his father's residence in Cowets county, Ga., on Saturday last, of consumption. During the war he was colonel of the Fifty-Sixth Georgia regiment, and was in active service in Virginia, on the coast and in the West. He was for eight years Secretary of State, and was a devout member of the Baptist church. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss.

—The McMinnville Enterprise, (Radical) says: The Maryville Republican, whose publisher is a colored man, W. B. Scott, Sr., advocates the election of a colored man to Congress for the State at large. Whether it would be expedient this time to add to our delegation in Congress a colored man, we pretend not to say. But if any one can see any incorrectness in the argument adduced, he can see further into a millstone than we can. It is an acknowledged fact that the member to be elected is to represent the 40,000 colored voters who have been enfranchised. This being the case it is contended that a colored man should be selected to represent his color and race. The argument is sound and can only be rejected on the ground of expediency.

A Wife and Mother Murders the Husband and Father to Save Her own Life and the Lives of Her Children.

Last week a lamentable occurrence took place near Keeser's Rocks, near Big Sandy, Ky., in which "the invisible spirit of wine," did even more than its customary work. A man named Clark went to Catlettsburg and drank enough to bewilder his reason and craze his brain. The vagaries of a drunken man are indescribable, and certainly can be explained on no rational hypothesis. Returning home, he abused his family and threatened them in such a way as to place their lives in constant jeopardy. Like the Chourineur, enraged with passion, inspired by whisky, he saw blood, his brain was oppressed by it, and the thought of slaying was uppermost. His wife and children, standing around and trembling, knew not who was to be the victim. He put the gun into the mouth of one of the children and threatened to shoot him, but an older boy knocked the gun away and took it from him. He then sent another child somewhere in the neighborhood of his house (a field) to get another gun he had there, loaded, all the time vowing he would kill some one. While the child was gone he pulled his bed into the floor and lay down, when the mother, for fear of her life, or that of her children, seized an ax and struck him several blows, the first of which proved fatal, he not moving after being struck. An arrest was made and an investigation had, when it was considered that the killing, guided by maternal instincts, was purely se defendendo, and the mother and children were discharged.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 25.—One wall of the Hospital of St. M. of the Conception, now in process of erection, fell yesterday, burying five workmen in the ruins, two of whom have since died.

RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, June 25.—The following letter was written by Senator Sumner to a citizen of Norfolk:

"SENATE CHAMBER, June 22, 1868.

"Dear Sir: I have your letter of the 18th in reference to eligibility of a colored man to Congress. I know of no ground on which he could be excluded from his seat if duly elected, and I should welcome the election of a competent representative of the colored race to either House of Congress as a final triumph of the cause of equal rights, and until the step is taken our success is incomplete. Yours truly,

"CHAS. SUMNER."

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The President to-day nominated Henry A. Smythe, Collector of New York, to be Minister to Austria.

Senator Henderson was married to-day to Miss Mary Foote. Among the guests were the Missouri and Vermont delegations in Congress, President of the United States, Secretaries McCulloch and Browning, Chief Justice Chase, and members of both Houses of Congress, without regard to politics, and many ladies. The Senator and his bride leave for the North this afternoon.

The President to-day pardoned George W. Wallingford, convicted in the United States District Court of Kentucky, for violation of the United States District internal revenue laws, and sentenced to sixty days imprisonment and fined ten dollars; and also John H. McBrayor, convicted of a similar offense, in the same Court.

FOREIGN.

PERTH, June 25.—The Prince Napoleon has arrived at Buckarest. He was met at the city gates by Prince Charles of Roumnany, and escorted to the Palace.

LONDON, June 25.—Mr. Ross, formerly His Britanic Majesty's Consul in Abyssinia, and one of the party held so long in captivity by the late King Theodorus, has arrived in England, and to day had a public reception at King's College, where he was heartily cheered and warmly welcomed by a large assemblage of the citizens of London.

WURMS, June 25.—The statue of Martin Luther was inaugurated to-day in the presence of a vast assemblage of people from all parts of Europe and America. The King of Prussia and the Crown Prince witnessed the scene. As soon as the statue was unveiled salvos of artillery were fired, and as soon as the applause subsided a hymn was sung by several thousand voices with immense enthusiasm.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—A large number of bills were referred and numerous petitions for protective duties were presented.

A resolution was adopted calling on the President for information relative to the imprisonment of naturalized citizens in England.

After some unimportant business the order of the day, the legislative appropriation bill, was taken up.

The question was on the amendment offered by Sherman, from the Committee on Finance, appropriating $150,000 for temporary clerks for the Treasury Department, and providing that the Secretary of the Treasury may classify the same.

Further debate on this point ensued, during which the President's veto was received from the House, and the omnibus bill passed over it by 35 to 8, Davis having first delivered an eulogium on the President, ranking him as one of the noblest characters of the age.

HOUSE.

The Senate's amendment to the bill dividing Illinois into two judicial districts was concurred in.

Schenck made an appeal to the members, especially the Republicans, to be in regular attendance during the consideration of the tax bill.

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on the tax bill.

Price's amendment, offered last evening, was agreed to.

Schenck offered a verbal amendment, the effect of which would be to amend the vote just taken, but the amendment was rejected by 34 to 77.

Boutwell moved to substitute for the 51st section a provision allowing a drawback of sixty cents per gallon on imported alcohol and rum.

Morehead moved to reduce the drawback from 60 to 50 cents. Agreed to by 62 to 42.

Boutwell's substitute was then agreed to.

On the motion of Schenck sections 52 and 53 were struck out, and also the amendments made to section 54, which simply provides for the withdrawal of spirits from warehouses.

Sections 50 to 61 inclusive, were also stricken out, section 62 having been read, which provides that all distilled spirits in any bonded warehouse shall, within 100 days after the passage of the act, be withdrawn from such warehouse and the taxes paid on the same.

Schenck stated that he would at the proper time, move an amendment requiring whisky in bond to pay a special tax of $4 per barrel.

O'Neill moved to strike out section sixty-two and made an argument to prove that the law was unjust to persons who had honestly invested in the whisky in bonded warehouses, to pay the tax within one hundred days.

The Committee rose at 2:30 p. m., and the Speaker presented the following:

To the House of Representatives:

In returning to the House of Representatives, in which it originated, a bill entitled "an act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana and Florida, to representation in Congress," I do not deem it necessary to state at length the reasons which constrain me to withhold my approval. I will not, therefore, at this time, re-open the question upon the grave constitutional questions, included in the act of March 2d, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, in pursuance of which it is claimed in the preamble of this bill that these States have formed and adopted Constitutions of State Government, nor will I repeat the objections contained in my message of the 20th inst., returning without my signature, the bill to admit to representation the State of Arkansas, and which are equally applicable to the pending measures. Like the bill recently passed in reference to Arkansas, this bill supercedes the plain and simple mode prescribed by the Constitution for the admission to seats in the respective Houses of Senators and Representatives of the several States. It assumes authority over six States of the Union which has never been delegated to Congress, or is even warranted by the previous unconstitutional legislation upon the subject of representation. It imposes conditions which are in derogation of the equal rights of the States, and is founded upon a theory which is subversive of the fundamental principles of the Government. In the case of Alabama it violated the plighted faith of Congress by forcing upon the State a constitution which was rejected by the people according to the express terms of an act of Congress requiring that a majority of the registered electors should vote upon the question of its ratification, and for these objections and many others which might be presented, I cannot approve this bill, and therefore return it for the action of Congress required in such cases by the Federal Constitution.

[Signed] ANDREW JOHNSON.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1868.

The message having been read, the Speaker stated the question to be, "Will the House, on a reconsideration, agree to the passage of this bill?"

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, moved the previous question.

Robertson inquired whether it was in order to move that the message be printed and laid over for further consideration.

The Speaker replied that it would be, if the previous question was not seconded.

The previous question being seconded, however, the vote was taken, and resulted—yeas, 105; nays, 30; a strict party vote.

The Speaker then stated that two-thirds having voted in the affirmative, the bill was again passed, and would be transmitted with the objections of the President to the Senate for similar reconsideration.

The House again went into a Committee of the Whole and resumed the consideration of the Tax bill—the question being on O'Neill's motion to strike out section 62 and make it read as follows:

SEC. 62. Be it further enacted, etc., That all distilled spirits in any bonded warehouse shall, within six months after the passage of this act, be withdrawn from such warehouse and the taxes paid on the same, and the casks and packages containing said spirits shall be marked and stamped and be subject in all respects to the same requirements as if manufactured after the passage of this act, and any distilled spirits remaining in any bonded warehouse for a period of more than six months, after the passage of this act, shall be forfeited to the United States and shall be sold or disposed of for the benefit of the same, in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury."

No amendment was made to sections 63 or 64, requiring returns to be made by the owners of distilled spirits in bonded warehouses, exceeding fifty gallons.

Section 65, imposing special taxes, Schenck, by instruction of the Committee on Ways and Means, moved to add to the first paragraph, which refers to distilleries, a provision that a tax of $4 per barrel shall be collected from the owner of the distilled spirits, and to be paid on the withdrawal thereof from the bonded warehouse.

Section 65 was so amended that the payment of the special license and tax on liquor dealers shall not authorize the business to be carried on contrary to the State and municipal laws, and exempting from the tax dealers in tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed $100.

Section 66, imposing taxes on tobacco and snuff, was read the second time, and amendments for reducing the tax were offered and rejected.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A Washington dispatch to the Telegram says: "Considerable interest is felt here from the indications that the leaders of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention strongly insist on the nomination of Hancock."

Governor Seymour addressed the Jackson Central Association this evening. He said: "In every part of our land are proofs of the wide-spread change in political feeling, while the ablest Republicans refuse to go on with a party which ramples on the judiciary, usurps power and in spite of all ideas of political morality and unhinging all the business machinery of the land. We are laboring under some embarrassment from the great evil of the change in our favor, and those who are rallying around the standard of constitutional rights, who have heretofore held conflicting views with regard to events for the past few years, and the question is how can we set this great majority in the field, and so arrange it that they can drive out the disciplined and desperate hordes of office holders, who now misgovern the country. This is the only problem to be settled. The American people are disgusted with the conduct of the Congressional party, and can we work out a policy which will unite the majority under one standard? This can only be done by a thoughtful, forbearing and unselfish course. At the same time we must be outspoken, and confront all the questions which perplex us. Men look forward with hope and fear to the action of the National Convention on the 4th of July. I shall not speak of the candidates; let the claims of each be considered in a courteous and manly spirit, and let us take care that no partizanship shall draw us aside from our duty to our country. We should support with hearty zeal every upholder of Constitutional rights. It will be in the present state of our country an unholy thing to go in the July Convention with any purpose which shall not have in view the rescue of our Government from the men who now have it in hand."

He then proceeded to reiterate his views formerly expressed on the financial question, opposing both contraction and unwise issues, and urging the restoration of the national credit, now tainted by the wastefulness and profligacy of the party in power. He contended that five hundred millions of the thousand millions of money spent by the Government since the surrender of Lee could have been devoted to the payment of the national debt, carrying by the proof of good faith the national credit to the highest point, while no bonds at a lower rate of interest would have reduced our taxes and brought our currency to the value of specie.

Gov. Seymour also spoke in favor of general amnesty and the restoration of suffrage to all the whites in the South, which would obviate the necessity of keeping up a military despotism to feed idle negroes, to break down the judiciary, to shackle the executive, and to destroy all constitutional rights.

He closed with an appeal to the whole country to join in one united effort and drive from power the common enemies of liberty, honor, right and constitutional laws. The speech was much applauded.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY—Friday.—Sun rises 5:01; sets 7:52.

Saints.—Sts. John and Paul, martyrs, Rome, 362; St. Authelm, Bishop of Bellay, confessor, 1178.

Born.—Dr. Doddridge, nonconformist divine, 1702, London.

Died.—Francisco Pizarro, assassinated at Lima, 1541; Alexio Czarowicz, died under sentence, 1718, Petersburg; George IV of England, 1830, Windsor.

Remarkable Occurrences.—On June 26th, at Lubeck, Germany, died one of the most remarkable beings recorded in the history of mankind. If he had come up in the world during the dim and distant ages of antiquity, we might have set down the whole story as a myth, and thus dismissed it as unworthy of consideration; but the comparatively late period of his birth, and the unimpeachable character of the witnesses that testify to his extraordinary career, leave us no alternative from belief and wonder. Christian Heinecken, the prodigy of whom we speak, was born of respectable parentage, in Lubeck, in 1721. He spoke, we are told, and sensibly too, within a few hours after his birth; when ten months old he could converse sensibly on most ordinary subjects; when a year old he was perfect in the Old Testament, and in another short month he mastered the New. When two years and a half old he could answer correctly almost any question in ancient or modern history or geography. He next acquired Latin and French, both of which he spoke with great fluency and correctness, at the court of Denmark, to which he was taken in his fourth year. His feeble constitution prevented him from being weaned until he was five years old, when he died in consequence of this necessary change of diet.

Several learned men in Germany, and one Frenchman, have written essays and disquisitions in the attempt to explain, on natural principles, this wonderful precocity; but the only result of their incubrations has been to prove that it is utterly inexplicable.—(Vogel: Ges: wun: Ereig. Vol. 2.

SHELBY DIVISION No. 45, Sons of Temperance, will hold their quarterly election to-night at 8 o'clock.

ARRIVED.—Messrs. R. G. Craig & Co., seedsmen, have received a consignment of those new and improved fanning mills, the greatest invention of the age for grain growers. Call and see them, at No. 379 Main street.

OUR THANKS are again due to Felix Cross, Esq., of the Southern Express, for favors received. If we fail sometimes to acknowledge his courtesies, it is not from lack of appreciation of them, but because a continued repetition of thanks must become as wearisome to him to receive, as to us to write them.

EMMONS & SON received yesterday the Eclectic, Atlantic, Our Young Folks, all for July; London Lancet for June; New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Pilot, Banner, Emerald, Kelly's Weekly Herald of Health for July, and all the dailies. Call at either No. 10 Jefferson street, or 393 Main street.

SUPERB BILLIARD SALOON.—We were induced to stroll into the billiard saloon of the Crystal Palace, between Jefferson and Court streets, now under the direction and management of Mr. Joe Longinotti. We found the tables new and elegant, of the latest patterns and styles, the cues all right, the rooms light, airy, admirably ventilated, and convenient to the Crystal Palace, where John Zanone, a favorite furnisher of approved beverages presides. A more recherche and superb establishment is not to be found here or elsewhere.

FURIOUS DRIVING.—We are requested by an old citizen to call the attention of the authorities to the manner in which the engines are driven through the streets when an alarm of fire is rung. Yesterday morning the engine was driven at the full speed of two horses through Adams street, between Third and Fourth, at the imminent peril of all passengers and wayfarers. While we recognise the necessity of haste in such matters, we must deprecate everything that looks like recklessness, and hope that our gallant fire-boys will try and be more careful in future.

MAGNIFICENT HORTICULTURE.—We received yesterday, through the attention of Messrs. R. C. Craig & Co., of the Agricultural Warehouse, two lots of potatoes—the produce of two hills—of the Early Goodrich variety, cultivated by our friend Geo. W. Gift, Esq., who has given such close and intelligent observance to agricultural pursuits, and who is contributing a mountain of labor to the advancement of the science as well as practical improvement of agriculture, of which we shall let him speak in a brief communication, in our next. The specimens fully warrants all the encomiums passed upon the variety of potato, both for fecundity and quality. Messrs. Craig & Co. also presented us with a specimen of the Westherford onion, weighing a pound and a half, and measuring fifteen and a half inches in circumference, grown from the seed this year, sold by them, conclusively showing that this soil and climate, with fair cultivation, cannot be surpassed in the production of this rather fragrant but deservedly popular esculent. It is proof conclusive that the seed sold by Messrs. Craig & Co. is of the most approved and certain character.

MURDER AT MILAN.

Dastardly Radical Outrage.

Billy Brown, a Young Memphian Murdered in Cold Blood by Brownlow's Pimps.

The little town of Milan, on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad, was the scene, night before last, of a tragedy which added another to the long list of infamous murders perpetrated with impunity by the myrmidons and partizans of the Governor of Tennessee.

From the few data that we have been able to glean, the following are the facts in the case: During the late session of the Legislature, the settlement or station of Milan was incorporated as a town. A few weeks ago a party of so-called Union men assembled for the election or nomination of municipal officers. While their meeting was in progress, a party of thoughtless boys and youths paraded the town, and serenaded them with tin pans and horns. Night before last an adjourned meeting of the same parties was assembled, and some noise was made outside of the building. Three brothers named Tom, Sam and Meredith Wheeler came out, and seeing no one about except young William Brown, the son of Jesse F. Brown, Esq., cotton broker, of this city, who was standing near by, they came up to him and commenced cursing and threatening to kill him. Brown was totally unarmed, while each of the Wheelers was loaded down with weapons. One of them, Sam Wheeler, it is said, raised a double-barreled shot-gun, and aimed it at Brown, who threw up his hand and begged him not to shoot. While thus begging, Tom Wheeler shot him through the body with a pistol, killing him almost instantly.

The above is a plain statement of the facts, as detailed to us by a responsible party, and we present it without comment. The full particulars will no doubt differ from it in detail, but we have no doubt of the accuracy of the general report.

THE TOURNAMENT.

Last night all arrangements for the grand gala at Linde's Park were completed, and the beautiful grounds received the final touch, putting them in readiness to receive the crowd that will no doubt flock thither to-day. We are informed that the programme and order of ceremonies will be pretty much the same as those observed at the last tourney a week or so ago. The knights, in full dress, will assemble on the east side of Court Square, and there be formed. The line of march will then be down Court street to Charleston avenue, up the avenue to Adams street, down Adams to Second, up Second to Exchange, down Exchange to Main, down Main to Beal, up Beal to Shelby, down Shelby to South, and thence to the Park.

The services of a cornet band were secured gratis, in Helena, and they are to arrive this morning on the steamer Liberty No. 2, Capt. Rice, with his well known and accustomed liberality, having tendered them a free passage hither. Arrangements have been made for the thorough watering of every part of the grounds, and also for keeping perfect order.

Twenty-three knights have thus far entered the lists, whose names and titles are given below. Others are expected this morning, and will be duly proclaimed by the Herald-at-Arms.

The object for which this tourney is instituted is the erection of a monument over the graves of the Confederate dead—one that should be dear to every Southern heart. Let us sincerely hope that our community will show that it is so by turning out en masse and giving the affair their hearty support. Do not plead business; you can leave your business for an hour. Shut up your shops, your stores and your offices, and go and spend one dollar for the memory of men who freely gave their lives for you.

BASE BALL.—The following is the score of five innings played between the "Bluff City" and "Pride of the South" Base Ball Club. It will be seen that the "Bluff City" is again victorious, and has borne off the palm. We understand that a Germantown Club has had the temerity to challenge them. Look out, Germantown:

THE FIRE YESTERDAY.—About quarter past nine o'clock yesterday morning an alarm of fire was sounded, caused by the burning of the roof of a large frame house on the corner of Alabama and Hill streets. For some minutes before the bell tapped dense volumes of smoke were emitted from the roof, but the fire did not show itself. Within eight minutes of the sounding of the alarm, a stream of water was upon the flames, and they soon succumbed to the power of our steamers—having done only some five hundred dollars worth of damage. The house was a two story tenement, owned by Joseph Ziegler, and insured to its full amount.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL CURE BY DR. NORRIS, 59 MADISON STREET.—I certify that my adopted daughter, Ellen, aged fourteen years, had sore eyes (granular lids) about eight years, and was treated by a dozen or more of the best physicians of the city, without relief. I took her to Dr. Norris on the 27th day of December last—(at this time she was almost totally blind)—and after about five week's treatment she was perfectly well—her sight entirely restored and her eyes as bright and beautiful as ever.

SAD ACCIDENT.

Little Boy Drowned.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

Yesterday afternoon, between four and five o'clock, Thomas Ryan, the little son of Thomas Ryan, Esq., who lives on Alabama street, went in bathing at the culvert on the bayou, back of Winchester Cemetery, and while in the water, was seized with a fit and was drowned before any aid could be rendered him. His body was taken out of the water. On the arrival of Coroner Samuelson a Jury was empannelled and a verdict rendered of "accidental drowning." The decease was a bright little lad of some ten years of age, and is said to have been subject to these sudden fits.

POLICE ITEMS.

—The Justices of the Peace are all mightily excited over the report of the Grand Jury to the Criminal Court. All hands are in a flutter, and want to rush into print to right themselves. The best thing they can do is to prove by their acts that the grand jurymen are wrong, and the public will soon right them.

—William Bell, a nigger Constable, is another instance of the daily recurrring saying, "like master like man." He is a Constable of the nigger Justice Carter, and night before last went to the house of Patsy Jackson and stole, while there, jewelry to the amount of twenty-five dollars. Patsy had him arrested yesterday and carried before 'Squire Black. The evidence was conclusive, and in spite of the tear-bringing eloquence of a lawyer whom he had to defend him, William was sent up in default of $2000 bonds to answer to the present term of the Criminal Court. At the announcement of the decision of the Justice the guilty party wanted to know whether the ball could not be fixed a "leetle lower"—say a thousand dollars, but 'Squire Black could not see it.

—Mrs. A. H. Dorsey got out a peace warrant before 'Squire Griffith yesterday, against one Mrs. Ellen Salen, but the case was not ready to be heard. The 'Squire bound them both over to appear and argue the case this morning at ten o'clock.

—Mrs. Salen, the defendant in the above case, sued out, at the same time, a warrant against Mrs. Emma Golay, for abusive language and threatening her. The case will also be adjudicated at the same time.

—Gus Winn (negro) who lives on Rayburn avenue, was last night robbed of fifty dollars in greenbacks by three scalawags, who went to his house and represented themselves as detectives. The police arrested a man named Moyer on suspicion yesterday, but there was no shadow of proof against him, and he was discharged.

—Six arrests up to half past eleven o'clock in the First District—all for trivial offenses except one; one Thomas Neville, a negro, was arrested by Officer Goll, on a charge made by Dr. Bateman, of stealing his horse from him.

—Two mares and colts were stolen from the stable of King Cannon, about three miles from Germantown, last night.

PERSONAL.

—Ex Gov. A. B. Bradford is in town, and stopping at the Worsham House.

—Henry Rice, Esq., the New York resident partner of the firm of Rice, Stix & Co., arrived in the city yesterday, on business of his house.

—Major W. E. Woodruff, editor and proprietor of the State Gazette, Little Rock, Ark., arrived in town yesterday. The Major looks as well, if not better, than when we last saw him "wearing o' the gray."

THE COURTS.

CHANCERY COURT—Wm. M. Smith, Chancellor.—The decrees and orders entered on yesterday were as follows:
Jones vs Bartley, receiver made.
Divine vs Toof, interlocutory order.
Reid vs Reid, terms of sale changed.
Bradley vs Bradley, reference ordered.
Polk vs Doyle, final decree.
Buck vs Williams new bond to be given.
Thomson, Bonnell & Co. vs Cross, decree.
Peacock vs Thomas, sale renewed.
Davis vs Pepper, report confirmed, etc.
Magdwell vs Magdwell, reference on report, etc.
Pearce vs Armstrong, receiver.
Mosby vs Hunt, new parties made.
Lanier vs Peyton Savings Institution, new parties made.

Malatesta vs Cuneo, new party made.
Harrison vs Blackburn, sale renewed.
James vs James, sale renewed.
Moore vs steamer Bostona, reference.
Morris vs Selden, reference renewed.
Belcher vs Wickersham, new parties made.

The Chancellor rendered the following decisions on yesterday: Thomas vs. Goodwin, for decree as prepared; Aldridge vs. Pope, dismissed as to certain parties; Pegram vs. Dohan, demurrer overruled. To-day the Clerk will call the roll of solicitors for motions, commencing at letter A. After the motions shall have been heard the following causes have been specially set for hearing: Fleece vs. Rogers, Slaughter vs. Warner, Ward vs. Warner. The Clerk and Master will take an account to-day in the case of Battle vs. Laird.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—The jury in the case of the State vs. John Garin, indictment for murder, returned a verdict of guilty, and fixed the period of imprisonment at five years in the penitentiary. A motion for new trial and in arrest of judgment was entered. No cases will be tried by jury until Monday next. Court will remain in session up to that time to receive the reports of the Grand Jury. It is expected that by next Monday, a new and more convenient courtroom will be provided by the Commissioners.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran Judge.—The Jury, in the case of the State vs. Creighton, unlawful gaming, returned a verdict of not guilty. All the other cases set for trial yesterday were held under advisement, on motions to quash.

The cases set for trial to-day are:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | 1353 | State vs League, speculating in county claims. |
| 472 to | 476 | Same vs Madson & Swears, unlawful gaming. |
| 1448 to | 1462 | Same vs Kopperschmidt, unlawful retailing. |
| 1783 to | 1784 | Same vs Small, unlawful retailing. |
| | 1778 | Same vs Jones, carrying concealed weapons. |
| | 1779 | Same vs McPartland, carrying concealed weapons. |
| | 1777 | Same vs Cosgrove, carrying concealed weapons. |
| | 1766 | Same vs McDigett, carrying concealed weapons. |
| 1624 to | 1633 | Same vs Wetter, keeping gaming house. |
| | 1768 | Same vs Nelson, carrying concealed weapons. |
| | 1596 | Same vs Johnson, assault and battery. |

SHELBY CIRCUIT COURT—George W. Reeves, Judge.—Yesterday being motion day, the usual number of motions were heard. The cases set for trial to-day are from No. 232 to 270, inclusive. No decision as yet in the contested election cases.

RELEASED.—It will be seen by the following dispatch, that the Messrs. Marks, who were arrested in Columbus, Ga., a few days ago by the military authorities for alleged complicity in the murder of Ashley, have been released. The news will be hailed with delight by the many friends of the young gentlemen:

ATLANTA, GA., June 25, 1868.—We have been released to-day, and will return to Columbus this evening.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—By a general request, a mass meeting of the Democrats of Shelby county is hereby called to assemble at the Exchange Building on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, for the purpose of preparing for the ensuing campaign and effecting a thorough organization. I am authorized to say that the Hon. Albert Pike, Col. W. T. Avery, Gen. Chalmers and other distinguished speakers will be present and address the meeting.
By order, etc., M. D. L. STEWART,
Chairman.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Mr. Local: Would it not be wise for the city authorities to have lamp-posts erected on Main street, south of Linden, in advance of the Nicholson pavement. ## RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, June 25.—The river here is rising steadily.

CINCINNATI, June 25.—The river is falling, with ten feet in the channel.

Arrived—Darling.

Departed—Ozark, for Arkansas river, with a fine trip.

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—The river is falling, with five feet ten inches in the canal.

The weather is clear and pleasant.

Arrived—Dexter, from New Orleans.

Departed—Swallow, for New Orleans.

CAIRO, June 25.—The river rose twenty-three inches to-day.

Up—Richmond, 3 p.m.; Simpson Horner, 6 p.m.; Indiana, 11 p.m.; J. H. Groesbeck, 8 a.m.

Down—W. R. Arthur, 6 a.m.; Belle St. Louis, 3 p.m.; towboat Hyatt, 6 p.m.

NEW ORLEANS, June 25.—The Ruth and Argosy departed to-day.

MEMPHIS, June 26.—The weather yesterday was warm, but not without a steady, refreshing breeze during the greater part of the day. Business was very moderate on the levee. The river rose about two inches. It is at good stage to St. Louis. Ohio river is falling, and getting low above Cincinnati. Arkansas river is again getting low and troublesome. White river is falling, but still navigable to Augusta for the regular packets, from which point the Fairy Queen makes regular trips to Jacksonport, etc.

Arrivals.

Steamer John Kilgour, New Orleans.

Departures.

Steamer John Kilgour, Cincinnati.
" Marble City, St. Louis.
" W. A. Caldwell, Little Rock.

In Port.

Sam J. Hale.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Rubicon is on her last trip until August. She will go on the dock at St. Louis and undergo extensive repairs. In the meantime Alf Grissom will be on a bender in New York.

The snag boat, J. J. Abert, has got as low down the river as Island No. 8 and is doing excellent service in removing obstructions.

The John Kilgour had 700 tons miscellaneous freight and 500 head of cattle, 50 of which were put off here. The others were for Cairo.

Captain John B. Davis is about to purchase the Legal Tender and fix her up for the White river trade, so as to have a tri-weekly line when business resumes. She will first run awhile to give the Commercial a chance to repair. The price asked for the Legal Tender is $20,000.

The next regular packet for St. Louis will be the Belle St. Louis, leaving on Saturday.

Dull times and warm weather continue to drive many away from this section for the summer. Among those who left yesterday were Ike Hurst and his "carpet bag." Their destination is Leavenworth. Ike is a good boy and we wish him luck.

The river editor of this paper, who smashed things generally at the Masonic picnic on Wednesday, or rather suffered pecuniarily from the smashing of things, went yesterday in the direction of Iuka, on a bender, and will be absent nobody knows how long. Fearing that he would be taken for a "carpet-bagger," he carried his wardrobe safely stowed away in one of his boots.

The famous Sam J. Hale leaves for Cincinnati at 5 p.m. to-day. She is now receiving freight. Her cabin accommodations are superb, and Capt. Walker will do to bet high on.

The gallant Liberty No. 2 will be in port this morning. She is the regular Saturday packet for White river, and will receive freight and passengers for Little Rock, connecting closely with the railroad at Devall's Bluff.

A dispatch received by Levy & Miller yesterday, reports the Arkansas very low and no prospects whatever of an early rise. It is well in such emergencies to have so reliable a medium of transportation as the Memphis and White River Line.

The Commonwealth was due from New Orleans last night bound for St. Louis.

The Pargoud, which we reported aground yesterday at Montezuma, is fully 300 yards out of the channel and in a bad fix generally. It would not be surprising if she were to "fight it out on that line all summer," as a very low stage of water is near at hand.

Travelers who would leave for St. Louis to-day will find the Rubicon in port at 4 p.m. She is first-class in every respect, and Capt. Blake and Alf Grissom are clever officers. Freight and passengers will be received at the City whar

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in this country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost, and superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these Instruments are remarkable for their peculiar sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when brought to their utmost capacity. The lower register, retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre serpentine Base richly moulded, and each Instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 d&wly

BY TELEGRAHP.

Noon Dispatches.

BROWNSVILLE, June 25.—In the Supreme Court to day the cause of Robert Turner vs. W. B Brown was continued for reargument; Bly vs. State, judgment reversed. The Court adjourned without concluding No. 45 of the Memphis Law docket.

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—The Courier's Washington special says: "Gen. Blair, who is now here, is strongly urged by his friends for President, and they profess to be sanguine of success. His views are of a most emphatic and pronounced character; they are given with the point, terseness and vim of a positive and fearless nature, and are the application of fixed opinions to the existing situation. Blair now, as always, scouts the idea of giving the ballot to the negro. Suffrage he regards as a cardinal issue of the canvass, and his inflexible opposition to the Radical doctrine of negro suffrage is the chief issue on which the Conservatives must triumph. He holds the reconstruction acts establishing military despotism in the South to be unconstitutional, null and void, and that the National Convention should so declare them. That the reconstruction acts being mere usurpations, sustained only by lawless violence and the force of arms, that the Government must withdraw this coercion, correct its wrong, and leave to the white population the right to regulate the question of suffrage. That the bastard and spurious Governments set up at the South will fall as soon as the military is withdrawn. Furthermore, he asserts that it is the duty of the coming President to see that justice is done by restoring the governments, which are created and properly constituted of the white population, to those whom they belong. Gen. Blair says that the laws of Congress, disfranchising persons who are embraced in the amnesty proclamations and special pardons, are illegal, arbitrary and void, as are also the test oaths for voters. Gen. Blair is unwilling to accept or acquiesce in anything done by the Radical Congress on the subject of reconstruction. He is for confining the government of the country exclusively to the white men, and is confident of an overwhelming defeat of Radicalism if the Democratic platform is bold and dead issues are ignored. He predicts a tremendous uprising of the people, such as has never been seen in America. He declares that if he were nominated and elected the Radicals should not cheat him out of his election by frauds or violence."

WASHINGTON, June 25.—A big fight is pending over the nomination of Perry Fuller as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. He claims that twenty-five Radicals are pledged to his support.

Examiner Foote, of the Patent Office, will be appointed Commissioner of Patents, and Cox, chief clerk of the Interior Department, will be nominated for Commissioner of Pensions.

The Reconstruction Committee will report a bill to remove the political disabilities of Gen. Young, elected Conservative candidate for Congress from Georgia.

The President has pardoned M. C. Brower, of Kentucky, who was charged with violating the revenue laws.

The military officer sent by the President to Atlanta to investigate the Chipley case, is ordered to report forthwith, and the prisoner will be released speedily. Twenty white men are imprisoned there by the arbitrary authority of the military. There are scandalous hints about the conduct of the commander of that Department.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Venezuelan advices of the 7th state that, in a recent battle in Coria, Gen. Gill and three hundred of his troops figure among the killed and wounded. The Monongaro was before the gates of Cacas, demanding an unconditional surrender of the place.

Nassau dates of the 23d state that business is stagnant, failures numerous, and starvation anticipated; in consequence of which a petition is to be forwarded to England for the removal of the Governor and the Secretary.

A Havana letter states that an American brig has been compelled to pay two dollars duty per ton on her cargo instead of the legal rate of fifty cents. The United States Consul has laid the case before the State Department at Washington.

The six metropolitan commissioners in Cuba have sentenced twenty-nine prisoners to death in three months.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, June 25, 1868.

Dullness continues to be the most noticeable feature in nearly every department of trade, and consequently we have little of interest outside the ordinary routine to present. It is "fly time" beyond dispute. Currency continues to accumulate at the banks and is easy. Bankers seem disposed to consider good short dated paper with some favor, but there is very little of the right kind offered.

Exchange is quiet, little making and very meager demand. Occasionally we hear of moderate shipments of currency to check against. Checking rates on the North and East are ½ to ¾ prem. Approved bills pass readily at par. Southern Exchange is dull and nominal.

Gold was without apparent change today. It opened in New York at 140½, declined ¼ at noon and closed at 140½. In this market yesterday's rates were maintained, although there was scarcely any movement, dealers buying at 139, and selling at 140, in counter transactions.

County Scrip remains dull at 60 to 62c buying and 65c selling. Buyers are holding off in anticipation of large disbursements in July.

Police Scrip is offered in excess of the demand and is dull at 80c buying and 85c selling, although we heard of a few small pieces taken in one instance at 82c.

City Scrip is in good demand, with little on the market. A transaction of $6000 at 80c occurred between dealers this morning, and last evening there was a transaction of $2000 in city notes, interest added, at 79c. Ledger balances are nominally the same as Scrip.

There is also a brisk demand for City Bonds but there are no old ones afloat, and blanks for new ones cannot be filled out until received from New York. The demand for bonds is at 55 to 56c.

The demand is also still good for all kinds of railroad securities, on Northern account, but there are none afloat on the market. Rates are as quoted in our last: Memphis & Little Rock bonds, 1st mortgage, 46c. Memphis and Charleston Railroad, 55 to 56c; Memphis and Ohio Railroad stock, 10c; 1st Mortgage bonds 10c, 30c; 2d Mortgage bonds 6s, 20c; Mississippi Central Railroad bonds, 1st Mortgage, 57 to 58c; 2d Mortgage, 40 to 41c; Mississippi and Tennessee 1st Mortgage, 50c; Mississippi and Tennessee 2d Mortgage, 33c.

Tennessee 6s were quoted in New York to-day at 77c for new and 77¾ for old.

Our leading staple was more animated to-day at all points and appreciated some little in value. In New York 30c was bid for uplands in the morning, but sellers claimed an advance, and later in the day were realizing a better with sales of 1500 bales. Good middling closed at 32c, and Orleans at 31c. In Liverpool the market opened active without change of prices, but closed with an upward tendency and sales of 12 000 bales; uplands, 11½d and Orleans 11½d.

Here the market was quiet, and very firm. One list of 19 bales middling was to be had as late as evening at 29c, but seemed to escape the attention of buyers who were in the market at that price. One party was eager for strict middling at 30 to 31c, but found only four bales. The little cotton left on hand classes mostly under low middlings. There was no disposition to sell and transactions were very few and far between. We learned of two or three little operations at 25c for good ordinary, and 26 to 27c for low middling.

Brook's Portable Revolving Screw Press

INVENTED by a Southern Soldier of Georgia, and patented in 1865, is now offered for sale by the undersigned, who has the sole right to sell in Shelby and Fayette counties. It combines simplicity, power and durability; is warranted to stand and work well. It can be worked with less power, saving time and wood material. It is made principally of iron, and will last much longer than the ordinary screw, and is practically the press for the times. PRICES MODERATE. These presses can be seen either at McRAE, LEA & CO.'s, Memphis, Walker's Station on Main, Fayette county, Tennessee.

For particulars apply to GEO. W. MORRIS, Walker's station, or J. C. EDENTON, Macon, Tenn. jy1 wlm
